Why wasn't Rudy questioned by the defense in more detail? I was stunned when I read what little was said by him at trial and how he seemed to be rushed out of the court in 10 minutes. I don't understand why your lawyers didn't question him unmercifully, can you elaborate on this? Pat MiGroin

The reason is simple: his defense team didn't want him to be questioned about the murder and the judge stood by his defense requests.

Can you provide a source to evidence showing that you and/or Amanda didnt call the police after the first police (postal I think) arrived? If not, can you counter the claim that you called the police after they arrived to attempt to cover your involvement?

Rudy Guede also told his friend Benedetti that he didn't murder Meredith. Since you say Guede had no reason to lue because he was talking to his friend, does not that then mean he didn't murder Meredith? Or did he indeed lie to his friend that you say he had no reason to lie to?

If as you say the detectives left Amanda's lamp in Meredith's room, why did they take it in there in the first place and how do you know they did? If what you are saying is true, why was Amanda questioned on the stand about the lighting arrangements in her room?

They did a mess all the house during the perquisition. They almost didn't notice what a mess they did for sure. For instance Meredith's bed was thrown into the kitchen by detectives and girls' books where all over the house.

about 6 hours ago

If Meredith came back at the cottage as soon as 7:30 - 8:00 pm, it makes a great difference to the possibility of yours involvement in the tragic facts. It's the first time a heard about that time frame. Where is the proof of it ?

No, I'm sorry you're right. I looked up at the documents ... She came home at 9:00 ... but Rudy is right saying everything happened between 9:00 - 9:30. Thus if you watch the parking cameras, you can notice a guy walking toward Meredith's house few minutes before Meredith came home. He is Rudy for sure (has the same shoes). And the frame is clear.

7:30? It's certain Meredith was alive at 9 when she arrived home. Your cell phone was off from 8:40pm until 6:00am, according to your book & cell phone records. SO, why did you sit there during your trial, SILENT, while experts paid by your father argued that your cell phone was on all night?

1. no one asked me anything at all. Ask the prosecution: why did they have no answer for me?
2. the expert paid by no one, but me was hired to prove that the prosecution was wrong with their cells analysis.
3. The prosecution phonecells analysis, in fact was wrong.
4. it doesn't change anything.

about 23 hours ago

Rudy said to Benedetti that Meredith screamed at 9:20 or 9:30 (from Skype transcript). But he also said she came home at 8:30pm. It's known that she came home from her friends' place at 9:00, so Rudy's times are at least 30 minutes off. She was probably killed after 10:00pm.

No Rudy is right. she left her friends to come back home at 7:30-8:00 pm.

Why did Amanda leave her lamp in Meredith's room?

No, she didn't. The detectives did it.

about 23 hours ago

Why do you think Meredith was murdered at 9:30 pm at the latest? What do you think was happening with her cell phone at 10:13pm?

Because Rudy Guedé, the only person who was over there during that tragic night, said everything happened around 9:00 p.m. He had no reason to lie because he was talking with a very good friend of him (Benedetti). Moreover, what happened to her cellphone is explained by my lawyer Giulia Bongiorno. The intruder (Guedé) pushed some button with no sense in a compulsive way.

38 minutes ago

Your memory seems to have improved with the years. How do you explain that?

Bothering people asking me questions about the the justice ordeal in which I came through. And a lot of studying as well. :)

Do you know that Amanda played a prank on her UW room mates by getting some boys she knew to dress up in masks and pretend to kidnap/attempt to rape them? I find that frighteningly close to what happened to Meredith. Not supposition, someone went on record with a Seattle newspaper alleging this.

I think a lot of students do something like. It means nothing.

In HB you said you turned your phone off when Jovana left (8:40pm) and that it remained off at 11:00pm so the text sent by your father wasn't received until 6am when your phone connected to the tower (ie it was turned back on). It had to be off during the murder. Do you think your cat turned it on?

Meredith has been murdered in a period between 7:30 (when she left her friends to come back home) and 9:30 p.m. at most. Moreover In the the prosecution mind a cat can jump and touch a light button inside the apartment below (Silenzi's Apartment) where they found a lot of blood. Ask the prosecution how a cat can do that, they have the answer for sure.

Now you claim that your profile is not to be found on Exhibit 165B. This means that you cannot believe that the sample was contaminated in the laboratory. This is strange because your lawyers spent considerable time trying to convince everyone that contamination was the only explanation for it.

Contamination did not happen in the laboratory, but when the scientific police went into the apartment the second time. They wrongly went into the apartment after everything was put up side down by the detectives.
